COMMENTS

Two fraud cases were received and are being worked. Two found property reports were also received, with the owners being identified. One owner reclaimed their property, while unreturned messages were left with the other owner. One larceny case was received wherein the victim reported that someone had taken the registration decal off his vehicle. It was discovered while working in Ponce Inlet, but the victim lives in Daytona Beach and could not determine where the offense took place. This case was reclassified as Information.
